

An undertake analysis of benefits and costs of being telepathic / telepathetic

Do you know what the weightings are for and how to use them? If not, you can (are responsible) for completing the list of benefits and associated weightings. Bet you don't have the fortitude to complete and score this, then send me a copy (anonymously of course)!

(I won't include that last point as the last cost) aha aha ha aha

Benefit	Quantified Advantage Weight	Cost	Quantified Cost Weight
Can see anyone doing everything / anything		Dyslexia	6
Can meet lots of people, internationally		Loss of human contact / isolation	8
Can do something special		Neurodegenerative - loss of memory, loss of cognitive skills, communications skills, asocialisation	6
Can do something very powerful		Other Freemasons "zone" you (invisibly)	3
Can do something elite, secret, futuristic, unregulated, and free		Your bank details are widely known - your money might be stolen	1
Can get DSP		You are who you hang with - bad people, dispositions and habits	1
Can find drug dealers		Lack of / loss of integrity	2
Can see through walls		Compulsive lying	5
Seeing through walls means they can't swap the drugs around after a test try
Can know other peoples bank account details		Can be extorted easily	8
Can steal money from dead schizophrenics		Defending fuckwits and fuckwitism	2
Get to trick innocent people		Can't drive a car	9
Can lie to folk, and exact painful negotiations that they can never win		Can't complete year 12 education	9
Have the possibility of discovering what can be achieved with telepathy, and possibly using it to enhance and improve your life		You learn and swim in hatred, even if from other people (for schizophrenics)	3
Can meet the worst criminal murderers on earth		The obstacles to education commensurate in a limited maturity	2
Can have interesting discussions about secret and obtuse symbolism		Subject to stupid leadership and decision making	2
Can feel OK and healthy, when actually living an extremely unhealthy life		Forced into asking someone not in the fraternity for answers about what Freemasons and Freemasonry is up to	4
Don't have to get bored		Being negatively emotionally afflicted by the knowledge of what victims have to endure, and knowing they are innocent	4
Can get a friend to wake you up everyday, and go for 6-14 days without sleep or drugs		Not being able to read in plain language what the rest of Freemasons are up to	2
		Can't find the spunk or power to contribute to an analysis like this	1
		No self confidence, no self respect	8
		Die having a clear color image of a person (victim) in the front of your mind, last thing you ever see
		Have to experience and know other peoples dreams
		Cannot avoid watching other people taking a dump and a shower
